The Stock market this morning was dull and uneventful. The quotations were all sustained from the opening, and showed but few variations of importance from Saturday. The main feature of the market was the continued and rather increasing scarcity of Eric, the quantity of which is now reduced in the street to to 10,000 shares. The firmness which is produced by to 10,000 shares. The himness which is produced this scarcity influences favorably the rest of the market. Shorts are paying \(\frac{1}{2}\) to cent \(\frac{1}{2}\) day for the use of Erie, and New-York Central is by no means plenty. Between the Boards, there was little or nothing done; and at the Second Board the market was quiet, but very firm. Erie Cash Stock was very scarce, but, on seller's option, was offered at more than the usual difference. After the regular session, there was con-iderable disposition to buy the leading shares, and the market generally improved. The bulls obtained pos-ession of the market, although not without strong reristance from the bears. The resignation of Mr. Lathera as Director of the Etie Company, which the bears had used for their purposes, had but little influence, coun-teracted as it was by the extreme scarcity of cash stock. At the close 244 was bid. Central was the close. The shorts were buying. Panama was 1063.

The question of a propeller line on this route was be favorably considered. Southern Michigan was buoyant advancing to 24 bid; Cumberland was firm at 171 bid, which is better: Delaware and Hudson was heavy at 1(6), while Pennsylvania Coal was in demand and advanced to 72 bid, an improvement of 2 F cent. The advance is partly on a rumor that some in-tention is entertained to consolidate the Delaware and Hudsen and this Company, putting in former at par, and the latter at 90. The latter Company has a very large valuable coal estate which the former needs.

Some of the large stockholders of the Pennsylvania Coal are opposed to the consolidation on the terms suggested, considering their own stock worth more than Delaware and Hudson. Milwaukee and Mississippi advanced to 30, and Pacific Mail to 78. In the Bond market the transactions were not large, but prices generally were firm. Erie bonds were better and in demand. The closing prices in the Street were,

The Weekly Bank Statement, as was anticipated, is a favorable one, although the increase of loans was unexpected, and is no doubt measurably due to further ourchases of Treasury notes-certainly not to legitimate discounts of paper. Bank managers exhibit every disposition to use their present large amount of dead weight, and their inshility to find employment for it is all that keeps the loans below $120,000,000. The lesson of last Fall appears already to have lost all

COMMON PLEAS—PART I —Adjourned to Wedness, 1028, 103

Thomas Hallick and William Roberts, two confidence men, were yesterday arrested by Officers Keefe and Farley of the General Superintendent's office. They were in French's Hotel, in company with a countryman from Indiana, and were about to take a walk to see the elephant. The officers, well knowing their object, took them both into custody, and conveyed them to the Superintendent's office. On their persons were found $600 on the City Life and Trust Company. The countryman had a large amount of maney, which they no doubt would prefer. They also had several checks filled on the Market, Pacific, and Butchers' and Drovers' Banks for large sums. Their daguerreotypes were taken, and then they were let go.

ATROCIOUS ASSAULT AND BATTERY WITH INTENT TO KILL—A man named Patrick Mand was arrested on Saturday evening, by Constable Frear, for committing an assault and battery on his wife by shooting at her with a pittol, and also for attempting to kill her nephew. William O'Connal. The circumstances attending the two affrays are as follows: Mand has been employed at the Zine Works in Bettilehem, Penneylvania, for the past two years, and about a week ago came to Newark. On Saturday morning, he walked to New York and porchased a double-barreled pistol, which he loaded with builtes and slags. On his way back he stopped at the Buils Head Tavern, corner of Bowery and Oxford streets, and, showing the pistol, said he inhered to commit two marders that hight. He was perfectly deliberate and slober: but, from the coolness of his manner, his story was not believed. He then proceeded to No. 21 Van Buren street, where his wife keeps a small grocery, and walking into the stone, presented the pistol at her breast as the stood behind the counter, saying, "Are you ready to take this?" and izomediately fired at her. The woman, on seeing the pistol, made a movement to one side, and the balls just grazed her person, passing through one side of a vinegar harrel standing near and nearly through the other side. The balls passed so wear her person, passing through one side of a vinegar harrel standing near and nearly through the other side. The balls passed so wear her person, that the force of the shot string her, and had she not moved as she did, wind undoustedly haw killed her, as the pistol was aimed directly at her heart.

She then ran out and he attempted to fire again at her, but owing to the pistol being only half-cocked, failed also in this attempt to the same intent he shot at him. This is for you," and at the same time knocked him down, the fall injuring him quite severely. Mand then attempted to shoot him, but owing to the pistol was found to be heart for "The new steam sloop-of-war Hartford is fairly under way, the frame being all up, and the timber prepared as fast as possible. Some delay has been caused by the length of time required to adjust the plan of the iron work, but it is thought that the sloop will be ready for her machinery in three months.

"The repairs on the frigate Roanoke are still going on, and will not probably be completed for two or three months. We are told the expense of this renovation will not fall much short of $300,000. The expenditure of so large a sum ought, as it will, to make the Roanoke not only as good, but better than when she was first launched. The whole number of mechanics at work on this vessel, on the Hartford, and in the machine shops, is about a thousand. A large additional number is soon to be employed. The dry deck in which the Roanoke is being overhauled, is to be extended some 70 feet, making its whole length about 308 feet."

January and July. See advertisement. There continues to be a good demand for Three &cent Treasury Notes for Custom-House purposes at 20 a 30c. discount. The Five & cents are scarce at 1 & cent premium. About three millions of the Three & cents have been paid back into the Federal Treasury, of which only $200,000 have been reissued. The reissue is now suspended, and the remaining $2,800,000, if reissued, will probably bear about four and a half P cent interest. The business of the Clearing House to-day was $21,572,173. The Metropolitan Certificates are $229,000. At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the La Crosse and Milwaukee Railroad Company, held on Friday, the 16th inst., at Albany, Jackson Hadley, esq., of Milwankee, resigned the office of Secretary and also of Director of the Company. Mr. L. L. Doty acts as Treasurer and Secretary at Milwaukee, and Judge D. V. W. Radeliffe as Assistant Secretary and Treasurer at Albany.

All the coupons due in May upon the Michigan Southern Co.'s bonds, will be paid at the Corn Exchange Bank. The Marine Bank of Brunswick is now redeemed at the Suffolk Bank, Boston. The Delaware and Hudson and Pennsylvania Coal Companies will not issue the prices of coal on board at the shipping ports before the first of May. It is understood prices will be considerably reduced.

The Pottsville Miners' Journal, of Saturday, respecting the anthracite coal trade, says:

"The shipments are larger this week than was anticipated. The railroad has increased her tunnage 9,856 over last week, and leads the canal 540 tuns. The low rates of freight from Port Richmond to the East is now increasing the trade at that point.

"The trade continues unusully dull, and low prices prevail. While some of the collieries have suspended for want of orders, others, having received a few start again: but the business is extremely limited at all the collieries in operation."

The value of the produc's handled within the last eight mosths, including lard, amounts to near $9,000,000. This increase, of course, is owing more to a tendency of the trade to concentrate here than to the excess in the hog crop in the West. Over one fourth of the total increase in the number of hogs packed in the West was at this place, and the excess in the receipts of products is equal to 50,000 head. There was very little paper sold, and the rates continue to rule from 10 a 12 & cent, though not much can be placed at the former figure. The amount of unemployed capital is large, but there is still a partial want of confidence, arising from causes both at home and abroad, and which have already been explained, that tends to circumscribe operations.
